

Chhavi Monga, BBA, JD, Articling Student

Chhavi is an Articling Student with WEL Partners. She joined the firm in September of 2024 after completing her Juris Doctor degree from the University of Windsor, Faculty of Law. Chhavi holds a Bachelor of Business Administration (with Honors) from the Schulich School of Business. Before joining WEL Partners, Chhavi interned at a boutique immigration firm, along with working for the Pro Bono Students Canada (PBSC) under the Windsor Chapter.

Chhavi has always been passionate about her community involvement. During her time in law school she was the President of the South Asian Law Student's Society (Windsor Chapter), along with being an executive member of several other community organizations, such as Windsor Mental Health and Law Society, TRU Women and the Law Society, TRU Human Rights Club. Prior to starting her career in law, Chhavi has experience working with international organizations such as AIESEC (Canada), along with working in Research and Development and as an Accounting Intern.

Through her life Chhavi has constantly moved around the globe and has had the experience of growing up in four continents, seven countries and countless different cities, which she hopes would help her connect better with clients from all different backgrounds. At WEL she is interested in exploring more about trusts and estates, especially regarding guardianship, and consent and capacity.
